Description of the Project:

The INTERK (Intercultural Resources in Kosovo) project is about the income of young people of all ethnic groups living in Kosovo. This is done through workshops, youth camps and 18 small-scale projects.

Young people (participants/trainees) are individuals aged between 18-25, not employed or working in part-time jobs, and speaking English language on a basic level. Under the INTERK project, CaCH is implementing project activities in following municipalities: Fushë Kosovë/Kosovo Polje, Graçanicë/Gračanica, Kamenicë/Kamenica, Obiliq/Obilić, Prizren and Shtërpce/Štrpce. Thus, 60 young people are expected to be from cities/villages under those municipalities.
